

Bubble-Bath Time

Learning values

- Understanding the importance of personal hygiene
- Role-playing the process from being dirty to getting clean again
- Finding out about and identifying features of objects in the bathroom

Recommended materials

- 9215 Dolls Family Set
- Cloth to serve as a towel
- Sponge
- Water
- Scissors

Vocabulary

Encourage the use of these words during the activity:

- bathtub
- towel
- bubble bath
- sponge
- hot
- cold
- washing
- clean
- dirty

Connect

- Talk to the children about playing outside, getting dirty, and needing a bath. What is it like? Is the water cold? Is it warm? Do they take showers or bathe in a bathtub? What toys do they like to take into the tub?
- Have the children talk about and come up with ideas of the best ways of washing themselves in the bath. Encourage the use of words such as soap, sponge, bubble bath and towel.
- Tell the children that one of the baby dolls has had a great time playing outside in the mud. She is really dirty. Her mom decides to give her a bath in the new tub. With a little careful washing using the new bubble bath, her baby doll will be clean in no time!

Ages 3-5
Language
Social Skills

Construct

- Have the children create and build the bathroom and a few other things they might need, e.g., a sponge, soap, a towel. Help Mom bathe and dry the baby doll.

Contemplate

- Encourage the children to elaborate on their vocabulary during the process of washing the baby doll by asking open questions such as: What's the water like? What are you using to clean the baby doll? How will you dry the doll?
- Ask the children to explain what they are doing, how they handle things, and how they make sure the baby doll is clean all over.
- What toys can the baby doll take into the tub? What bath-time games can be played?

Continue

- Have the children talk about having a bath with a brother or sister. What is it like? Baby dolls also like to have a bath together. Find out if it is possible to have more baby dolls in the same tub. What fun activities could they do? Can they make soap bubbles?
- Actually Mom would like a bath too. Prepare a very relaxing one with all the necessary soap, shampoo, and anything else she needs to make it cozy.

Can be used as inspiration

