Panasonic VIERA Engineered for Performance

A Panasonic VIERA HDTV is the big screen TV for people in the know. Don't just take our word for it, listen to CNET's objective panel of experts. They found that our VIERA VT Series "represents the pinnacle of current flat panel picture quality." They also hailed our GT50 for its "superb picture quality and beautiful design," marveled that our ST50 "sets the value standard among videophile grade TVs," and called our TC-P50UT50 "one of the best TVs we've seen." Redefining the way people watch TV ... just another way we're engineering a better world for you.
